THE SPIRIT:

(PERSONAL SERVICE)

The character of service that a bank can render, may be efficient, but still its lacks much if the service is not rendered with the spirit of enthusiasm and friendliness.

It is the aim of this institution to be a co-worker with its customers and to provide for their needs, efficiently of course, but more than that, with the spirit of helpful service.

THE FARMERS NATIONAL BANK

OF APPOMATTOX, VA.

The Most Practical Remedy For High Prices

THE ONLY REMEDY for High prices and Abnormal Profits is Increased Production. The markets must have a greater supply. Economists agree that increased production to a large extent depends upon NEW CAPITAL, and that new capital can be produced in sufficient quantities only through ECONOMY and SAVING.

EVERY community in America should make a special effort in 1920 to PRODUCE SAVINGS.

SAVINGS make CAPITAL--CAPITAL makes PRODUCTION, THEREFORE Saving will reduce the High Cost of Living.

STRIKES MAN FOR PRAYING.

Charleston (W. Va.) Man Dismissed It Was So Loud.

Charleston, W. Va.—Marin Perez didn't object to Frank Willis praying at their boarding house, but it was Frank's method of praying to which Marin Perez objected. He had him arrested and sent to prison. Friday morning, following a series of conflicts between Gen. E. Reyes, revolutionary representative, and Gen.
Colunga, Carranza commander of Matamoras, he was placed under arrest. He charged that Willis prayed so long and so loud that it is impossible for the rest of the boarders to sleep.

CANARDS ARE SET AT REST

President Receives First Ambassador From Belgium And New Minister From Uruguay.

Washington.—An ambition to die richer because "it is a disgrace for man to die rich," was expressed by Nathan Straus, 72-year-old millionaire, when he was received yesterday by President Wilson. He said he had been offered a sum equal to his fortune, but he turned down the offer, saying: "I would not be a disgrace to my country if I died rich."

Declaring that if his hope is realized he will be richer than any man in business and in good works, Mr. Straus said:

"There is no satisfaction in money alone. Food and home and work—play—they are for rich and poor. The only lasting satisfactions is in what you can do for the world."

Mr. Straus will sail for Palestine next month to aid in the restoration work there.

CONSCIENCE TWITTED HIM
TWELVE YEARS OVER
SUM OF $5.

Washington, Pa.—Another local case in line with the international truth that "conscience doth make cowards of us all" came to light when a former employee of the Chambersburg, Greencastle and Waynesboro Trolley Company walked into the office of the manager of the Edward McKeown, $5, saying he had robbed the money 12 years ago, when he worked on the road, and that it had burned a hole in his particular brain cell, that is the seat of remorse.
He had repaid the money and made the conscience-stricken young man go and sin no more.

Some time ago a druggist and a stationer were paid sums representing the value of goods lost lifted by a shoplifter who had one who was so conscientious would seem to be epidemic in our midst.

TO CHECK DISCONTINUED.

Gov. Cornell Advises Merchants To Forgo Their Profits.

Atlantic City, N. J.—Governor John J. Cornell, of West Virginia, told the joint convention of the American Hardware Manufacturers' Association and the Southern Hardware Jobbers Association here that businessmen are fully presenting their credentials before fully completing their status as the official representatives of their governments.

"I believe if the great merchants of this country would make up their minds to forego profits for three or four months, the result would be that the people would have at least a reasonable commission, they would go far toward knocking the bottom out of unrest and discontent," he declared.

"I am no alarmist, but the man who has failed to grasp the extent of the trouble is not fit to be a leader."
As the Uruguayan Minister, the Belgian Ambassador, Baron de Cartier de Marchenne, and the British Ambassador, Sir Archibald Gardiner, were here, he said:

"I believe that the signature of the Admiral is forged, and that it is forged as a means to cover the fact that he has been unable to get government to admit his forged signature."

"He was asked what he thought of the fact that the signature of the Admiral was forged, and he replied, 'I don't know,' he said.

about the forged signature, and he said he had none, and he was asked if he had any information about the forged signature, and he said he had none.
